

COMMODORE'S COMMENTS

- BY BRIDGE RANDALL -

Does it seem like the year is almost finished yet it just begun? Crazy that it's almost 2026.

HYC is prepping for another year of sailing and nautical activities. Our planning party has made an incredible calendar of events for next year. We have the club board elections at this month's potluck and then our formal dinner to celebrate, the flag officers dinner.

The plan this year is to have it in the Big Room at the wharfinger building. A fun cook your own steak dinner and celebration of the new HYC board.

It's been a pleasure to be the Commodore this last year. I am so pleased with the direction the club is moving. It could only happen with the valiant effort of all the other board members and crew. Thank you for all you have done to make our club a success!

We still need a vice commodore candidate! We've simplified the job in focusing on the racing half of our club. Do you like to race boats? We need you!

I'm very excited for my new position as past commodore. It will be great to trim sails rather than drive the tiller!

Ahoy All Yea Skallywags Swabbers and Shellbacks!

This Saturday is our monthly cocktail and social party. I'm hosting and making crème brûlée martinis. Succulent snacks! Come on down about 5pm to enjoy the sunset (hopefully) and some good company!

“Chris Myers is a surgeon and the Chief Medical Officer at United Indian Health Services. His wife, Alexa, is a pharmacist at St. Joseph’s and an Arizona-born landlubber who’s eager to learn the ropes as she transitions from desert life to sailing life. Together, they’re raising two incredible kids: Mason, 18, a physics major at UC Santa Barbara, and Ela, 4, a spirited wildling thriving at Fieldbrook School. Chris is fueled by fitness, reading, DIY projects, and all things ocean. His perfect day involves being in and out of the water, surfing, body-surfing, and playing with family until sunset. His formal sailing education peaked more than 30 years ago, culminating with being awarded a sailing merit badge, but eight years in the Navy gave him a head start on nautical terminology and a lifelong appreciation for good knots. Now he’s setting his sights on learning to sail and hopes to begin charting family voyages in the coming years.”

Brief bio: Navy (QM3) and Army (Pay Clerk) Veteran, longtime tenant on I Dock aboard the Rhiannon and now of the Oceania.

Recently retired and a volunteer with Team Rubicon.

I’ve travelled around the world save the breadth of Africa, set foot on every continent, and had my Shellback earned twice over, my BlueNose chasing Soviet subs in the Bering Sea.

I’m not much of a join-er, but happy to at long last join the HCY club.
