Welcome SPRING! The weather is warming a bit and the sailing is great!

Our In-Bay Keelboat race on March 7 produced some very close racing! Thirty seconds of corrected time separated first place Curt Brown from second place Bridge Randall. Wes Hodges grabbed line honors with the super fast J35 and corrected out to third place. For me the beautiful day with near perfect wind took the sting out of finishing last. And, we flew the spinnaker on Air Ride and doused it with very little hassle!

We're looking forward to the next race of this series on Saturday, April 4 at 2pm (skipper's meeting at 1pm) followed by our social hour in the Club Room at 5.

We have our second day of Class Racing on Sunday April 19 so come on out Olson 30 and Holder 20 sailors for some fun in-class sailing without any handicap calculations. If you win, you win!

Our Wednesday night FOG racing continues all month with a potential double whammy; April Fools Day and Tax Day! If I'm gonna look foolish, I'd rather do so in a sailboat on April 1, and who wouldn't want to forget about taxes with a nice evening sail! on April 15.

Don't forget our Potluck dinner on Tuesday, April 7, social hour at 5pm with dinner at 6, and come on down to the Club Room on Saturday, April 12 at noon for club cleaning day to help us spruce up the Room.

Enjoy the warming trend and see ya out there!

Bahia Salina, Isla Carmen, Sea of Cortez, January 2026

Sunrise in this quiet beach anchorage revealed the softest sand I have ever felt under my feet. An abandoned salt facility rusted away at the North end of the beach and dunes stretched a few hundred yards inland to the base of the steep mountainsides. Nothing growing here had a soft edge save for a few flowers and they were grown on thorns.

We had sailed in on a stiff breeze at sunset the evening before and the forecast had us excited for a great day of sailing ahead. I paddled ashore an hour before sunrise just to make sure I didn't miss any part of this amazing day. Ask me about getting my ASA 114 and a week aboard Mi Sueño, Excess 11, off the coast of Loreto. Let's book a charter!
